

Biographical Sketch
Tim and Lana Chandler

Tim and Lana Chandler travel full time in a ministry of singing and preaching conducting concerts, revivals, camp meetings and conferences. Their travels have taken them across the United States, Canada and the Philippines. They minister in over 150 dates a year and have recorded several musical and vocal projects. Their songwriting has been a blessing to many, with several other gospel groups recording their material..

Tim grew up in the home of a pastor and family where singing and music was the norm. Tim started playing instruments in church at the age of seven.

Appearing on her first recording at the age of 5, Lana enjoys a life of ministry as a gifted speaker and vocalist. Her family singing group, The Jellisons, received national exposure while traveling in an evangelistic ministry for over 30 years.

Tim served as a Music Director in a church in Delaware, where he attended Kent Christian College and received an A.A. in Theology. Lana attended United Pentecostal Bible Institute in Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada.

Tim and Lana Chandler began their musical career together when Tim joined Lana's family group in 1991. Tim sang and played the bass and keyboard for the group. In 1992, they were married and continued their ministry with the family. In addition to the recordings made with The Jellisons, Tim has recorded two piano instrumental projects and they have produced a project of original Praise and Worship choruses. Tim has also produced several recordings for other groups.

Tim and Lana's first vocal recording, He Will Come Through, was released in September of 2004. They released two songs to Southern Gospel radio, "He Will Come Through" and "I Got What I Needed" from that project. They have authored or co-authored most of the songs that they sing. A promotional DVD is currently available on this website.

Their second recording entitled, "I'll Still Be Standing" was released in September 2006. They have an Exclusive Artist Agreement and Writers Contracts with the Eddie Crook Company in Nashville, TN.

They travel with their two daughters, Tiffany age 13 and Lyndsey age 8. Tiffany is also a singer, songwriter and upcoming musician. She is pursuing her own solo recording.
